(23) As per the writer, Dr. K. Subrahmanyam, purity is the supreme gift of God for mankind. We need purity in all fields of life. We need pure food, pure speech, pure body, pure thought, pure mind, pure environment, pure love. Purity promotes our physical and mental health. As per the writer, purity of body is physical health, purity of mind is wholesome peace, purity of thought is righteous reason, purity of society is harmonious unity, purity of environment is soul elevating serenity, purity of ~~love~~ heart is unselfish love. Evils have no place in the presence of purity. Fools who come to scold remain to pray in the presence of purity. Murderers who come to harm become the votaries of peace owing to purity. Evils can't face purity as darkness can't face sunlight. A pure person has power to turn a bad man into a good one. A pure man has metamorphosing ability. Wholesome peace automatic comes to a pure person. On the whole, purity makes a man pious in his deeds and character.

As per the writer Kalki, the king of Pratibandpuram was foretold by a royal astrologer that his death would come by a tiger because he was born in the hour of bull. Bull and tiger being enemies. So, his death predicted by a tiger. When Maharaja grown up, he decided to hunt all the tigers to defend himself. In the same regarding, he killed ninety-nine tigers. But it was a hard nut to crack to find the hundredth tiger. The Maharaja was cut to the quick. But he was informed that there was a tiger in nearby village. Maharaja reached there but there was no sign of tiger. Maharaja was out of temper. In hot blood, he said Deewan to resign. In order to escape his job, Deewan arranged a tiger from Peepet People's park in Madras and left it where Maharaja was hunting. On the morning, the same tiger was wandering in the presence of king. Maharaja was in the seventh heaven seeing the tiger. He took aim and shot it down into a heap. But when Maharaja was left, the hunters finds the tiger alive. They didn't dare to say the same to Maharaja. So one of them took aim and killed it. Thus the hundredth tiger was killed by a hunter not by the Maharaja.

The Editor

The Hindustan Times

Sir

Through the column of your esteemed newspaper, I want to draw the kind attention of the parents as well as students about the influence of T.V. and internet on students.

Though it is a true fact that TV and internet provides deep knowledge regarding the subjects, but most of the students use it for amusement instead of study. T.V. spoils their time and leaves them in perpetual dreamy dreaming condition. They see vulgar videos on internet. It left it leaves a bad effect on their minds and makes them uninterested in study. So, you are requested to publish an effective article regarding the subject.

Yours faithfully
Rani

Speech: Child Labour

Honourable principal sir, respected teachers and my fellow students, I am Vishvendra Singh of class XII A. Today, I have a golden opportunity to speak on the topic 'Child Labour'. Though we have reached on the ~~men~~ moon, we call ourselves modern but all this seems futile and mere statements when we see children working in fearful and disgusting conditions. Children working below the age of 14 is called child labour. As per the statistics record, about 2 crore children are indulge in child labour. They have to do meanest of the mean job in restaurants, hotels etc. It is a blot on our society. It is their physical and mental harassment. They are handed tools instead of books. Child labour is an obstacle in the development of the nation. The child labour should be rooted out from our society. Poverty, unemployment are the reason for the same. The Government of India has banned child labour. But law alone can do nothing. The awareness of people is a must. We should do our best to root ~~out~~ out this problem.

Thanks for all to listen me so attentively.
